Thinking Out Loud

By H. M. L.

One cannot help but note what a vast improvement there is in home defense measures of this country in this war as compared with those of the first world war. When the FBI in one fell swoop pick up and lock up eight sneaked-in saboteurs and spys, it must give the Schickelgruber something to think about, especially, as he had endowed this precious octet with some $120,000 in good U. S. money. Perhaps he will revise his estimates of democracies grading them a bit higher than he has in past. When this performance is compared with the wrecking of railroad bridges and wholesale blasting of munition factories in the last war, there is good reason for satisfaction.

We note that some editorial commentators are crying for the blood of these trained saboteurs. Perhaps death is the penalty they deserve. It is certainly the penalty our spies would suffer if they were caught in Germany. But let us bear in mind one important fact, that this country is governed by law. We are fighting a system in which government is vested in men, desperate, bestial men, if you like, who rule largely by murder and threat of murder. Let us stick to, and insist upon, legal trial and legal punishment. Undoubtedly there are laws under which these eight saboteurs, or spys, or both, can be tried, and if found guilty, sentenced to death. Let us await the events of trial and sentence. If we find our laws are too lenient, then we can change them quickly in order to deal adequately with future such invasions.

The wholesale murders following in the wake of "Hangman" Heyrdich's assassination in Czecho-Slovakia, have roused a cry for vengeance throughout this country. The Germans first wreak vengeance upon the Czech people, then we, it is proposed shall wreak vengeance on the Germans, dealing out an eye for an ee and a tooth for a tooth. When the time comes for bringing German, or enemy criminals to justice, it may be the part of wisdom in so far as this country is concerned, to point out to the Germans who will succeed the present dictator, the heinous crimes committed and ask determinedly that civilized justice be done. We have not a doubt that there is a large section of public opinion in Germany that thinks much as we do regarding the Heydrich murders, and the vengeance that followed his death. Under these conditions we surmise that many Nazis who would grace the hemp.

It is certain that, following wars end and the peace, the fact that enemy countries did their own purging, will read better in history, than that Uncle Sam or John Bull stepped in and summarily ordered two or three thousand guilty Nazis hanged. There is one thing we can be certain of when the Axis is defeated. Nobody in the world will be so well qualified to judge the leaders who led them into this horrible voretx of human blood, as the defeated peoples.. They can ferret out the guilty with much greater precision than the victors. And, considering for a moment, what the Germans themselves have suffered, as a result of their negligence in permitting a band of gangsters to tke control of their country. Beside the awful roll call of death at the battle fronts, there has been espionage and murder on the home front. The largest concentration camps of course are for prisoners of war, but thousands of Germans are enduring the hardships, the filth, the starvation and the brutalities of the Gestapo guards, such as prisoners of war do not ordinarily receive. Indeed the German people will have a long score to settle with their Nazi leadership. They were the first people in Europe to be outraged. We can be reasonably certain that their justice is likely to be even more drastic.

Don't Forget! Fireworks Ban Now In Effect

Sheriff Carl J. Tobiassen and Chief of Police Max Solaro of Nevada City today pointed out to the general public that the use of fireworks of any kind is absolutely forbidden.

Tobiassen stated on the prohibitive list are fire crackers, roman candles, sky rockets, pin wheels, etc. He said violators will be prosecuted to the full extent of recent enactments forbidding their use.

Forest Supervisor Guerdon Ellis has again called attention to the prohibition against the use of fire works within the Tahoe National Forest. According to Ellis, forest personnel have been ordered to be on the alert to prevent the use of fire works by any uninformed persons. In the past fireworks have been responsible for many disastrous fires. Ellis further stated that the majority of the camps in the high country are ready for occupation and the fishing conditions look promising so that visitors over the Fourth of July weekend can enjoy themselves without fire works.

Mrs. Dorothy K. Adams is making the arrangements.

REGISTRATION EXPECTATION FALLS SHORT

Although some registration posts have not yet been heard from, Clerk Merle Morrison of the evada County Selective Service Board said the registration of youths between the ages of 18 and 20 in this county will fall far short of expectations.

In Nevada City but 61 were registered. In Grass Valley 121 registered. The Nevada County Selective Service Board had anticipated a registration total for the county of 400.

BANNER MINER HURT YESTERDAY

An accident at the Banner Mine of the Lava Cap group yesterday resulted in serious injuries to Jim Peroncello, 59.

The injured man was taken to the Jones Memorial Hospital in Grass Valley by the Hooper-Weaver ambulance service.

The accident occurred on the 400 foot level. A sudden slide or rock pinned the lower part of Peroncello's body to the drift level. He was extricated by fellow workers and brought to the surface and then taken to the hospital.

J. H. LASHBAUGH OPTIONS FIVE CHROME MINES

4th Celebration Here Promises To Be Gala Affair

The anniversary of Independence will appropriately be observed in Nevada City.

In cooperation with Grass Valley, Nevada City is prepared to thrill and entertain thousands of persons with a two day program that will have as its principal theme "It's Great To Be An American."

The celebration events will open tomorrow night with patriotic services at a platform in front of the Elks Building on Pine Street. Attorney James Snell will deliver the address and a musical program under the direction of Mrs. Carl Libbey will be presented.

Previous to the program the various concessions on Broad Street will be opened to the public. Proceeds from the concessions will go toward the USO, Navy War Relief, Red Cross and BWR.

Following the program on the platform, dancing will be held in the Elks Building until 1 a. m.

Tomorrow night has been designated as Home Coming Night and the Elks clubrooms will be open for former residents to renew acquaintances with the people of Nevada City.

A gigantic parade has been arranged for the Fourth. The parade, consisting of three divisions of floats band and drum corps and marching units, will get underway at 10 a. m. Sheriff Carl J. Tobiassen will participate with his mounted posse. Tobiassen is chairman of the parade committee. He announces Tom Lawrence will be grand marshall and Miss June Hawke will be the Goddess of Liberty.

Grass Valley is cooperating wholeheartedly with Nevada City in the celebration plans and it is probable that community will have more floats and marching units in the parade than Nevada City itself. A. G. Chegwidden and Harry Poole are in charge of the Grass Valley plans.

Mr. and Mrs. Pal Kemper, chairmen of the entertainment and finance committees, respectively, have devoted many hours of hard work to assure the success of the celebration. The entertainment program arranged probably outranks the programs of other years.

There will be something doing from the start of the celebration tomorrow night until the end Saturday night.

All afternoon Saturday Pioneer Park grove will be open for family gatherings and picnic lunches.

From 2 until 4 p. m. children sports events of all kinds will be held on Broad Street. Cash prizes will be awarded. Contests include a soap box derby, changing shoes contest and others. A mucking contest will be held at the Plaza for miners. The prizes for the fishing contest will be awarded.

At 4 p. m. a softball game between the Grass Valley and Nevada City Elks Lodges will be held at the high school. At 6 p. m. the annual water fight between the fire departments of the two towns will be staged.

Boxing will be held on the platform on Pine Street from 7:30 until 8 p. h. Entertainment and dancing will follow.

The soap box derby Saturday afternoon was decided upon at the last minute and boys planning to enter are asked to do so immediately. Also a request has been made for all boys with bicycles to decorate them and participate in the parade.

The Independence Day fete promises to be one of the finest ever held in Nevada City and all residents of the community are urged to participate. The committees in charge, including Co-chairman Al Bates and Irvine Seaman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kemper and Carl J. Tobiassen deserve the commendation of the city for their efforts to assure a successful celebration.

Ten Fire Engines At Camp Beale

Completion of installations for the water system at Camp Beale will be followed shortly by arrival of the first of ten fire engines assigned to protect the camp.

Fire stations are being erected throughout the cantonment and hydrants are now in place and ready for use. Minor fires have been quickly spotted by fire guards thus far, with the heaviest loss being a carload of lumber.

Streets of the camp are now being graded with the aid of heavy machiner. In all, Camp Beale will have about 80 miles of streets, it was said.

Major Franklin W. Fish, has now been attached to the permanent Camp Beale staff under Col. A. D. Cowley. Major Fish, who will be post utility officer, has just returned from the Northwest, where he undertook to increase the flow of lumber from the camps to supply the needs of the hundreds of cantonment buildings.

Late spring rains have retarded logging operations but the production now is expected to keep ahead of the local demands and eliminate layoffs of civilian workmen due to lack of building materials.

Construction companies now engaged in building the training center are reportedl proceeding at a highly satisfactory pace.

Hundreds of Nevada Countyans are employed on the cantonment project. The estimated payroll of Nevada County workers at Camp Beale is $50,000 per week.

BERTHA GRAHAM SUCCUMBS HERE

Miss Bertha Graham, a native of Selby Flat, died last night at the Graham ranch in Selby Flat after an illness of several months.

Miss Graham came to this area from Oakland for the benefit of her health.

The funeral services will probably be held at 2 oclock tomorrow afternoon at the Holmes Funeral Home.

The deceased was educated in Nevada City schools. When a young woman she went to Oakland to study music and later she became a music instructor in that city, a vocation which she followed for 25 years.

Miss Graham leaves a sister, Miss Alice Graham and two brothers, Charles and William Graham, all of this district.

FAREWELL DINNER TONIGHT FOR ROBT. POLGLASE

A fried chicken dinner will be served at the Elks Lodge here tomorrow night in honor of Robert Polglase, leading knight, who leaves during the weekend for San Francisco, where he will be employed by the Bank of America.

The transfer is a promotion for the popular local young man.

His friends here, although happy for his promotion, regret Polglase must leave the community in which he has spent his entire life.

Polglase would have been elevated to the position of exalted ruler of the Elks Lodge here next April.

M. E. CHURCH OFFERS PATRIOTIC PROGRAM

A Letter

SUMMER HEAT FLOORS MANY CAMP WORKERS

Following is another of the weekly letters which can be clipped and sent to relatives or friends who are now living elsewhere but who are still interested in Nevada City and its residents. The letter is published each Thursday in the place of Caught in the Riffles. The latter feature appears on Mondays.

Nevada City, July 2, 1942

Dear .....

On a hot day our sympathy goes out to those who work in the open sun. The temperature reached a high figure on the Camp Beale project during the past couple of days. The heat became too much for some of the workers. The contractors cut the working hours from ten to nine. And they say hotter days are to come. We could give you the temperatures but they are military secrets.

Supervisor Guerdon Ellis of the Tahoe National Forest had a birthday Tuesday. The Ellis' planned no special festivities for the occasion but Dick Rafferty induced several mutual friends to call Mrs. Ellis and ask her what time they should call at the Ellis house to attend a party in Guerdon's honor. Rafferty telephoned, then Bob Tamblyn, then Lambert Thomas and Si Sofge. Finally Bill Sharp, state forest ranger, consented to telephone, even though he had never met Mrs. Ellis.

To Mrs. Ellis Sharp's voice suspiciously sounded like Rafferty's in disguise. So she gave this earful to Sharp, whom she supposed to be Rafferty:

"Listen you old humbug I was going to invite you up to dinner (Rafferty's wife is out of town) but now you can go chase yourself."

Such is life in a small town. Lots of amusing incidents, some embrrassing of course, but all clean fun.

Ernestine Eilerman has moved into the Joe Tredennick house on Cottage Street. Most of the moving was completed by Tuesday night and Ernestine planned to sleep that night alone in her new residence. But just before the retiring hour arrived a mouse ran across the room. Ernestine changed her mind and returned to sleep in the place from which she is moving.

Nevada City's rubber drive has apparently bogged down. Practically no additional rubber being brought in to the local service stations despite urgent appeals. It was suggested that even the rubber tires around the ash trays in the supervisors' headquarters in the courthouse could be contributed without causing a hardship on anyone. But the suggestion was met with hostility by Dennie Coughlan, courthouse custodian.

Nevada City's contest with Yreka to determine which city, could collect the most rubber is practically at an end. Yreka's total is 250,000 pounds. Nevada City has collected approximately 100,000 pounds.

The state mining board, at a meeting at Chairman Erroll MacBoyle's home near Grass Valley, passed a resolution urging the importation of Mexican laborers for mine work. But the Lava Cap, the Empire-Star Mines and even the Idaho-Maryland Corporation reportedly have denied they will use Mexican labor.

Mrs. Minnie Young received a letter from a soldier, Otto Koenig, thanking her for the book she contributed for Red Cross bags made up in Nevada City.

The letter read:

"I want to thank you for the book that I received in my Red Cross bag yesterday. It will be a nice thing to read on my way over to Australia soon.

"The Red Cross bags are very nice. Hope that I shall be able to come bock to the U. S. A. someday. May God bless you for being so very kind."

It is those kind of letters of appreciation which spur every American to do their utmost for the war effort.

Goodbye until next week.

IT'S TIME TO GET TOUGH!

The complacency that Pearl Harbor exploded had begun to settle over this confident country once more—before the Libya disaster.

After Pearl Harbor, we were alert and angered. We took bad news without flinching; we fought fiercely on the war fronts and the home front. But then came the Coral Sea and Midway victories. Millions of Americans at home thought the Jap threat removed for good; thought they might relax and wait for the Russian armies and British and American bombers to pulverize Germany into submission. Then Germany loosed her might in the drives for the Suez and oil and union with the Japs. Then Tobruck fell, as suddenly and spectacularly as the forts of Belgium and Holland—to give that perilous complacency another jar, in England and America.

This may be a long war, and whatever its length, it will be terrible and dangerous to the end. Germany began preparing nine years ago. Britain began serious war preparation three years ago. We began less than two years ago. Americans are only at the beginning of the real ordeal of fighting and agony and privation.

Are the Japs licked as a war machine? Are they ready to quit? Well, they are giving new Japanese names to the American islands taken in the Aleutians, and have brought in seed potatoes and farm implements!

America will win the war only by long and tough fighting. Very tough fighting. But it isn't the proper time to talk about victory while Japs plant potatoes on captured American soil. This is the time to get tough!

VICTORY MAIL FOR SOLDIERS

Well named are the new "V-Mail" letters, to be given quick, preferred dispatch to and from all service men stationed outside continental United States. Specially designed paper and envelopes will be distributed free to service men, and may be obtained at home from postoffices. V-Mail letters will get there faster; and surely it is a contribution toward victory to speed a cheery letter from home to any homesick boy in the armed services. Hours of waiting around an overseas postoffice must drag like years. Know a soldier out there somewhere? Write him a V-Mail letter —today.

JUST WONDERIN'

I wonder as across the world
The tides of battle ebb and flow,
And slimy waves of sin and wrath
Attest the power of the foe.
If we can hold our standards high
And keep our courage strong and bold,
Remembering those who held the faith
And won their wars in days of old.

I wonder if we, you and I, are prone to become unduly elated or too painfully depressed as the tides of battle ebb and flow. It is so easy to wave gay banners when our side scores a victory and so natural to furl them when the powers of darkness gain a temporary advantage. At this stage of world conflict, it is well to remember that one battle does not make a war. There will no doubt, be many more battles before our enemies are conquered; some of these battles will result in gains for the foe, some of them will be victories which we may claim, but the end may be far. Therefore, our emotions must be held in check, our courage maintained at top level and our hopes preserved undimmed.

None of us can afford to weaken, and when we pause to realize the utter malignity of the foe, none of us will dare to. There can be no compromise with Hitler or Hitlerism. There can be no patched up peace. This war must be won as no previous war ever was won.

Through all the centuries of human history, many battles have been won and lost, but nothing has been finally settled. Each successive war has been followed by a brief breathing spell, then another period of strife, another spurious peace and soon another war. It must be different this time.

Forty centuries looked down upon Napoleon as he fought beneath the pyramids, numberless centuries look upon us and lay their unfinished labors before us, commanding us to win where they lost, build where they destroyed, and above all, to make the paths of peace straight and smooth for all the future years to be.

It is indeed wonderful to have a part in so splendid an undertaking. Let's sharpen the weapons of the spirit even as we perfect the material weapons with which modern mechanized warfare is waged. Let's rule our emotions and be ready at all times, to think things through, to use our gifts of human reasoning and keep brave banners flying.

Again the angry billows roar,
The skies are black with shame and sin—
Interepid souls, be not dismayed,
Hope on, the sunlit tide will win.
The sunlit tide from that far sea
Whose waves are clean, whose breath is sweet,
Will sweep these shifting sands of time
And lay its treasures at our feet. —A. Merriam Conner.

Man is, and forever has been, God's reflection,")p. 371.)

Ellis Off To Hollywood For "Forest Ranger" Preview

Forest Supervisor Guerdon Ellis left today for Hollywood where he will edit the final preview of Paramount's new motion picture "The Forest Rangers." This motion picture which stars Miss Paulette Goddard, and Fred MacMurray in the leading roles is a romantic drama with the wide open spaces of the forest and the forest service as a background, and depicts the life and duties of a forest ranger.

According to Ellis who was technical advisor during the filming of the "Forest Rangers," the picture will be very thrilling with its action forest fire shots. Throughout the picture fine humor prevails and of course there is the custmary boy loves girl theme.

BOUNCE SLOWLY, BROTHER

News in Rhyme Over KJBS Daily at 12:30

Written by Harley M. Leete, Jr.

Perhaps the car you drive is sporty,
But brother, don't go over forty.
The few folks who are legal buyers,
Won't be allowed to purchase tires,
Unless they sign a solemn oath,
That the speed at which their auto goeth,
Has been and will be very slow,
With forty miles the top we know.
So says the potent OPA,
Which has the final rubber say.
And he who, fibbing, tries to fetch,
New tires by making this rule stretch,
When his present tires have lost their bounce,
Will find he won't receive an ounce!
And speeders—drinkers at the wheel,
If they want tires will have to steal:
Whereupon they'll end up right behind,
The bars regretting they had wined.
The OPA extends its frown,
To bus lines, which must needs slow down.
There are teeth to this important rule,
To foil whoever tries to fool;
'Tis provided—for each affidavit,
The cops investigate who gave it.
Emergency speeding is, of course,
Permitted by the rule in force;
But woe betide the hasty man,
Who tries to beat the speeding ban.
For old John Law's big, heavy hand,
Will snap him like a rubber band,
And if he's found to have been speeding,
Tires are one thing he'll be needing!
The rubber need is not in fun,
Our nation's right beneath the gun.
For rubber—precious more and more,
Just must be had to win the war!

Nevada County and Cities Spend $1,110,781 In Year

The local governments in Nevada county spent $1,110,781 in 1940-41 an average of $58.46 for each man, woman, and child in the county, study by California Taxpayers association of government expenditures in California by counties revealed today.

General county expenditures during the year amounted to $602,328. The cities spent a total of $125,787 school district expenditures amounted to $369,920, county special districts spent $12,746.

Total expenditures by the local governments throughout California, the counties, cities, schools and the districts for 1940-41, amounted to $566,640,581, an average of $80.15 per capita, the association stated. In 1939-40 total expenditures amounted to $551,978,184, an average of $79.91.

County expenditures for 1940-41 amounted to $188,618,870, cities spent $123,652,507, school districts expenditures totalled $177,142,665, county special districts spent $12,488,536, and city special districts expenditures were $4,530,261.

"Local government budgets for next year are being made up right now" the association declared. "Reductions in these budgets for 1942-43 have to be made during July. 'Government As Usual' should be out for the duration. Unless action is taken immediately, and local spending programs are cut to the bare essentials, local governments will not be doing their all-out for the war. It's up to the people of the community to take action. A 'Do Nothing' attitude today will mean unnecessarily high local tax bills in November."

COUNCIL MEETS TONIGHT

The July meeting of the Nevada City Council will be held in the City Hall here. Mayor Ben Hall will preside.

THINKING OUT LOUD

tic than anything the victors in the war could devise.

Or, there is another alternative to intervention on the part of the United Nations as a body, when peace terms are imposed. The Czechs have been especially singled out for Hitler's sadist cruelties. Let the Czechs demand the surrender of all those who committed crimes against them. Let the Dutch, the Belgians, the Norweigians, and the Poles call for Germans who subjected their countrymen to bestial torture and death. In other words, let the invaded countries deal justice to those Nazis who ground them under their heels, after, for them, the war was over, the United Nations' commissioners, only functioning to see that the accused were tried according to the laws of the countries to which they were surrendered. But let us have no massacres, no wholesale slaughtering particularly of those without direct responsibility for crime.

Otherwise we descend to the low brute level of our enemies, and will have lost the war in fact if not in name.

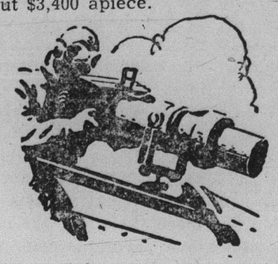
What You Buy With
WAR BONDS

The Aerial Camera for use on Scout and Observation and Reconnaisance planes is essential to both the Army and Navy air forces in planning battle formations and in obtaining information on enemy fortifications and movements. They look something like a cannon, and cost about $3,400 apiece.



The aerial cameraman can plot wide territories in bold relief so that Army or Navy Intelligence can make accurate measurements of enemy territory. We need many of these cameras so necessary to the air arms of the Army and Navy. You can help buy them with your purchases of War Bonds. Invest at least ten percent of your income every pay day, and help your county go over its War Bond Quota.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

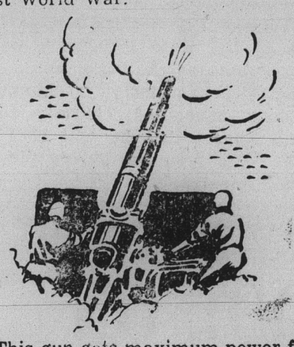
The 75-millimeter gun is a divisional weapon used by the Artillery as an anti-tank gun. It has been replaced to some extent by the more modern "105", known as the heaviest of divisional weapons. The 75-mm gun costs $12,000 and has been converted by our Ordnance into a "blaster" twice as efficient as in the first World War.



This gun gets maximum power for minimum weight and cost, and the American people are providing the finance through the purchase of War Bonds. If you do your share and invest 10 per cent of your income in War Bonds, adequate supply of this efficient gun can be assured our fighting forces. Buy War Bonds every pay day. *U. S. PEACE
Peace is liberty in tranquility.—Cicero.

You may either win your peace or buy it: win it, by resistance to evil; buy it, by compromise with evil.—John Ruskin.

It matters not what be thy lot,
So love doth guide;

Whate'er betide. —Mary Baker Eddy.

When shall all men's good
Be each man's rule, and universal peace
Lie like a shaft of light across the land,
And like a lane of beams across the sea?—Tennyson.

Modoc And Siskiyou Democratic Committees Endorse Finnegan

The unanimous endorsements of the Siskiyou and Modoc County Democratic Central Committees were received by Frank Finnegan candidate for Congress from the Second District, when the local aspirant visited those two counties during a tour of the northern part of the district last week.

Finnegan visited Truckee, Loyalton, Portola, Greenville, Quincy, Susanville, Westwood, Alturas, McCloud, Bieber, Shasta City, Weed and Yreka.

The congressional candidate, who has filed on both the Democratic and Republican tickets, reorts Siskiyou County Democrats pledged themselves to an "all-out" campaign in his behalf. Siskiyou County has the largest number of voters of any of the 18 counties in the district.

Finnegan won the support of the Indian Valley Record in Plumas County. Laurence Lockney, publisher, commented as follows in his issue of last Thursday:

"Finnegan is a Democrat and can be counted upon to support the president in the effort to win the war. Englebright is an isolationist Republican.

"In voting against the first lease lend bill, Englebright would have stopped American arms from going to America's allies in the war. This would have allowed the Hun an almost free hand in overrunning the whole of Europe before the other nations could be prepared to repel invasion. This was the isolationst policy of Harry L. Englebright.

"We believe it would be a patriotic move to retire Harry L. Englebright to private life and to elect a man to congress who will not attempt to halt the war effort after the enemy has more than half the countries of Europe under his grip.

"The Democrats of the district have been electing Englebright for about 18 years now. The Democrats can bolster up the national war effort by electing Frank G. Finnegan."

NEVADA COUNTY REGISTRATION DROPS 21 PCT.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—Registration of voters in Nevada county has dropped 21 per cent since the general election of 1940, according to the report of registration made by R. N. McCormack, count clerk, to the secretary of state.

In 1940, when the last general election was held, there were 11,770 registered voters in this county, and in June of this year the total was 9,242. Population of the county during the two year period, has shown a decrease of 6.7 per cent.

For the most part, the drop in registration is attributable to cancellation of registration following the general elections held two years ago. Under the California permanent registration law, it is pointed out, the county clerk is required, immediately after the completion of canvas of returns following the November general election, to consult the absentee voter list, and the roster of voters in the August primary and November general elections preceding, and to cancel all registrations for which there has not been a vote cast. Permanent registration is permanent only so long as registered voters vote, in either one, or both, of these two elections held in the even numbered years.

PLACER JUNIOR COLLEGE COST PER PUPIL CUT

Despite a decreased enrollment, Placer Junior College was operated during the school year 1941-1942 at a cost of $184.48 per student, a decrease of $4.23 per student from the rate of $186.75 established during the school year 1940-1941.

This is according to the annual report just completed under the direction of Dr. E. E. Oertel, the retiring superintendent, and submitted to superintendents of the various counties having students at the Auburn school.

The decreased expenditures were due principally to the smaller number of students transported in the school busses, and to the abolition of the position of associate dean.

Transportation costs were cut from $7700 to $5400. The associate dean's salary was eliminated when the duties were divided among three teachers, serving without additional compensation.

The college showed an average daily attendance of 293 for the year 1941-1942 against 351 for the year 1940-1941. Night school and defense classes with an average daily attendance of 60 persons, offset in part a large drop in the day time students.
